

Community Governance Review 2018

South Bucks District Council is currently undertaking a Community Governance Review for the following parishes:

- Denham
- Farnham Royal
- Stoke Poges

This is in response to requests received by the Council to review the electoral arrangements for those parish areas.

The review will focus on:

- Council size – the number of Councillors to be elected to the Council
- Warding arrangements – the number, size and naming of electoral wards

Have your say:

The Council is carrying out a consultation and invites comments from local residents and stakeholders to help inform the review.

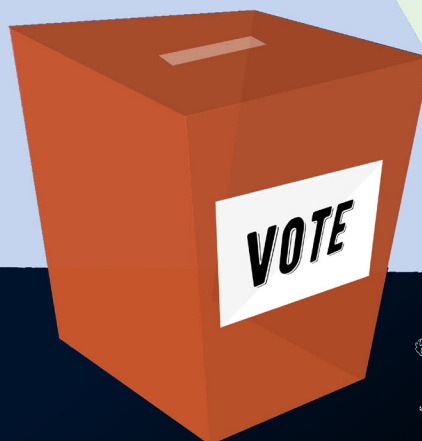

Further information is available via: www.southbucks.gov.uk/cgr2018.
